

I am a 1980 graduate of the University of Oregon School of Law, and have focused my practice on real estate law for most of my career. My practice is balanced between litigation, document preparation and client advising, both on state and federal law issues. I have extensive experience representing debtors and creditors in the Bankruptcy Court. I represent buyers and sellers of property, builders, developers, escrow agents, agents and lenders in residential and commercial real estate transactions. I regularly provide lectures for continuing education programs on a variety of real estate topics and business-related topics. I am a member of the Washington State and King County Bar Associations.