

Richard Birinyi has developed and maintained a regional practice focusing on creditor/debtor issues, corporate reorganizations, business transactions and complex commercial litigation. Recognized for his experience and proficiency on bankruptcy issues, he has participated in cases before bankruptcy courts in Montana, Idaho, Alaska, Oregon and Washington. He has represented creditors, debtors, trustees, unsecured creditors' committees and bondholder's committees in connection with reorganization cases.

Mr. Birinyi possesses extensive experience in complex commercial litigation, including participation as plaintiff's counsel in lender liability cases. He has represented clients in cases in a range of industries, including real estate, construction, forest products, fisheries, manufacturing, distribution, and retail businesses.

He is a frequent lecturer on topics related to bankruptcy and troubled business.