

Biography of Bruce P. Kriegman

Bruce P. Kriegman, Kriegman Law Office, PLLC, has been in private practice since 1984. Mr. Kriegman's areas of practice include creditor-debtor rights, commercial law, commercial litigation and real estate. Mr. Kriegman has broad experience in consumer and business bankruptcy cases, contested matters and adversary proceedings in Chapter 7, Chapter 11 and Chapter 13. He has counseled and represented small to large companies, quasi-governmental agencies, commercial lenders, entrepreneurs and individuals. Mr. Kriegman has served as a Chapter 7 and Chapter 11 bankruptcy trustee, Chapter 11 plan administrator and state court receiver. He was a member of the panel of bankruptcy trustees for the U.S. Bankruptcy Court for the Western District of Washington from 1989 through 2010. As a panel member, Mr. Kriegman served as trustee in over 9,500 cases and administered hundreds of cases involving diverse types of assets and issues. He is admitted in the federal courts for the Western and Eastern Districts of Washington and the U.S. Court of Appeals for the Ninth Circuit. Mr. Kriegman is a former partner of Gordon Thomas Honeywell Malanca Peterson & Daheim, LLP where he led the creditor-debtor component of the firm's business practice. Mr. Kriegman received his B.A. with honors from Carleton College and his law degree from Georgetown University. Mr. Kriegman has received mediation training from Pepperdine University's Straus Institute for Dispute Resolution and other mediation education programs. He is a member of the Alternative Dispute Resolution and Creditor-Debtor sections of the Washington State Bar Association, the American Bankruptcy Institute, the Federal Bar Association and the Advisory Committee of the Consumer Education and Training Services (CENTS).