

Donald A. Bailey

Donald has practiced bankruptcy law in the Seattle area since 1983, representing debtors, creditors, and trustees in Chapters 7, 11, 12 and 13. He has extensive experience in litigation, including avoidance actions, dischargeability cases, and plan confirmation. He believes that bankruptcy cases are particularly appropriate for negotiated resolutions. Yale BA 1973; Cornell JD 1978.