

John Kaplan is a partner in the bankruptcy group at Perkins Coie. His practice focuses on insolvency and bankruptcy matters as well as commercial litigation and commercial transactions. John represents commercial mortgage-backed securities special servicers and other secured lenders in various foreclosure, receivership, real estate litigation and bankruptcy matters. He also represents borrowers as in Chapter 11 cases, out-of-court restructurings, creditor compositions and secured loan transactions.