

RESCHEDULED DATE!

CLE Training on Mediation and Subchapter V with Social Event on Pier 70

The Thomas T. Glover Mediation Program, together with the KCBA Bankruptcy Section, announces the rescheduled return to in-person programming! Join us for a discussion of the mediation opportunities within Subchapter V, followed by a long overdue social event.

What: Virginia Burdette and Geoff Groshong, both experienced bankruptcy attorneys and Subchapter V Trustees, will be our featured speakers. 1 CLE credit is pending with the WSBA.

When: Wednesday, October 19 from 3:30 pm – 6:00 pm. RSVP by October 13 to WAWB_ADR@wawb.uscourts.gov [If you RSVP'd for the July event, please RSVP again so we know you are still interested.]

Where: Miller Nash's office space on Pier 70, 2801 Alaskan Way, Suite 300, Seattle. The venue is spacious, and the outside deck will be available as well. Thanks to Miller Nash for their hospitality and for hosting the social event that follows the training.

Note: Parking on Pier 70 is unavailable. Several public parking garages located nearby offer convenient options, including Paccar Pavilion Garage at the Olympic Sculpture Park (entrance on Broad Street at Western Avenue) and Olympus Parking Garage (38 Clay Street between Elliott Avenue & Western Avenue). In addition, street parking may also be available in front of the pier. We encourage the use of Lyft/Uber.

Miller Nash COVID-19 Policy. The safety and health of our community, clients, and visitors is Miller Nash's top priority and several COVID-19 protocols are currently in place. All Miller Nash LLP visitors must be fully vaccinated* and will be asked to complete a visitor check in form attesting to your health and vaccination status. While masking is not required in our office, we continue to support all those who decide to wear a protective mask.

Miller Nash has a zero tolerance policy for those exhibiting symptoms, and we ask that attendees who are sick or exhibiting symptoms stay home.

Miller Nash reserves the right to verify your vaccination status while on firm premises, if circumstances so require, by asking you to present either (1) your physical vaccination card, or (2) an image of your vaccination card.*
