

Instructions for Filing an Application for Payment of Unclaimed Funds for Western Washington Bankruptcy Court

Unclaimed funds are held by the court on behalf of an individual or entity who is entitled to the money but who has failed to claim ownership. The United States Courts, as custodians of these unclaimed funds, have established policies and procedures for holding, safeguarding, and accounting for the funds.

A. Application for Payment of Unclaimed Funds

The first step in seeking the payment of unclaimed funds is to complete the Court's Application for Payment of Unclaimed Funds (the "Application") and file it with the Court along with necessary supporting documents, described below. A copy of the Application and supporting documents must also be sent to the United States Attorney for the Western District of Washington. For purposes of this procedure, the party filing the Application is referred to as the "Applicant", and the party entitled to the unclaimed funds is the "Claimant." The Applicant and Claimant may be the same.

B. Supporting Documentation

The following supporting documentation must be provided with the Application:

- Payee Information: Funds are payable to the Claimant. The Applicant must provide the Claimant's tax identification number (TIN) on a certification form signed by the Claimant.
