

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to read "CM Alston", is written over a horizontal line.

Christopher M. Alston
U.S. Bankruptcy Judge

(Dated as of Entered on Docket date above)

UNITED STATES BANKRUPTCY COURT
WESTERN DISTRICT OF WASHINGTON

In re:

TERMINATING GENERAL ORDER 2017-3
AND CONFIRMING THE CHAPTER 13
TRUSTEES' AUTHORITY TO PAY FILING
FEE INSTALLMENTS FROM PLAN
PAYMENTS

General Order No. 2025-3

General Order 2017-2 revoked the Chapter 13 Trustees' authority to pay the balance of the Chapter 13 filing fees from a debtor's pre-confirmation plan payments in cases filed after April 1, 2017. General Order 2017-3 vacated General Order 2017-2 and reestablished the Chapter 13 Trustees' ability to pay debtors' filing fees from pre-confirmation plan payments. There is no reason to prohibit the Chapter 13 Trustees from paying outstanding filing fees with plan payments made post-confirmation.

Now, therefore, it is hereby ORDERED that:

1. General Order 2017-3 is terminated.
2. The Chapter 13 Trustees are authorized to pay outstanding filing fees from a debtor's pre- or post-confirmation plan payments.

///End of Order///