In re:

REASSIGNMENT OF CASES UPON
JUDICIAL APPOINTMENT - PORT
ORCHARD AND TACOMA CASES

General Order No. 2026-5

This General Order ("Order") sets forth the terms of the reassignment of cases upon the appointment of Judge Hilary B. Mohr. As used in this Order, "Port Orchard Cases" refers to those cases assigned to the Port Orchard hearing calendar under Local Bankruptcy Rule 1072-1(c), which is all Chapter 7 and 13 cases where the debtor's county of residence/principal place of business or assets is Clallam, Jefferson, or Kitsap County. "Tacoma Cases" refers to those cases assigned to the Tacoma hearing calendar under Local Bankruptcy Rule 1072-1(c), which is all cases where the debtor's county of residence/principal place of business or assets is Grays Harbor, Lewis, Mason, Pierce, or Thurston County plus all Chapter 9, 11, 12, and 15 cases where the debtor's county of residence/principal place of business or assets is Clallam, Jefferson, or Kitsap County.

Now, therefore, it is hereby ORDERED:

1. Port Orchard cases:

GENERAL ORDER NO. 2026-5

- 1 a. New Filings. Port Orchard Cases filed on or after October 13, 2026 will
2 be assigned to Judge Mohr and will be assigned a Tacoma case number
3 and trustee. All future hearings will be scheduled on her Port Orchard
4 Zoom calendar.
- 5 b. Pending Cases. Port Orchard Cases currently assigned to Judge
6 Christopher M. Alston, and any related adversary proceedings, will be 7 reassigned to Judge Mohr on or after October 15, 2026 and will retain
8 their assigned case number and trustee. All future hearings will be
9 scheduled on her Port Orchard Zoom calendar.

10 2. Tacoma Cases:

- 11 a. New Filings. Tacoma Cases filed on or after October 13, 2026 will be 12 assigned to Judge Mary Jo Heston and Judge Mohr.
- 13 b. Pending Cases. Tacoma cases assigned to Judge Timothy W. Dore, and 14 any related adversary proceedings, will be reassigned to Judge Mohr on 15 or after October 8, 2026.

- 16 3. The case reassignments described above are authorized by this Order; an order
17 of reassignment is not required in an individual case. The Clerk will note each 18 reassignment on the docket.
- 19 4. The dates for assignment or reassignment may vary from those stated in this 20 Order and will be effective without further order.
- 21 5. Judge Mohr will hold hearings for Tacoma Cases and Port Orchard Cases
22 according to Judge Mohr's calendars posted on the Court's website.
